

AGENDA

Carnarvon Mango Roadshow

Tuesday 26th November 2024 – 4.00pm

Location: Carnarvon Research Station (Bombshelter)
South River Road, Carnarvon WA 6701

4.00pm	WELCOME
4.15pm-4.30pm	<input type="checkbox"/> AMIA and Industry updates <input type="checkbox"/> Advocacy and Compliance <input type="checkbox"/> Biosecurity <input type="checkbox"/> Crop protection and access to chemicals <input type="checkbox"/> Export opportunities	Trevor Dunmall CEO Australian Mangoes
4.30pm-4.40pm	<input type="checkbox"/> Available resources <input type="checkbox"/> Crop forecast <input type="checkbox"/> NIR testing	Celine Jordens Industry Development Officer Australian Mangoes
4.40pm-4.55pm	2024-25 Mango Marketing Strategy	Andrew Burns Supply Chain Engagement Manager Australian Mangoes
4.55pm-5.15pm	<input type="checkbox"/> Gascoyne Drought Resilience Plan <input type="checkbox"/> Irrigation management	Richard Soppe Principal Regional Development Officer Gascoyne Development Commission
5.15pm-5.35pm	Climate data and implications on growing mangoes: Current season outlook and comparison with previous years	Melanie Ford Research Scientist WA DPIRD
5.40pm	Social networking (Catering provided)

Our project partners: